

(Amb.) Dr. Engr. Marvin Ama-Amadasun, PhD | MBA | FIIM

Dr. Marvin Ama- Amadasun has more than 25 years as an entrepreneur, with experiences in IT, IT-Security & Project Management and Novel Technologies. He is an acclaimed IT Trainer, Disruptive Innovation and Technology Consultant which cut across novel Technologies Integration, Digital Transformation, IT-Security & Management, Vocational Education & Training, Skill Acquisition, Innovation & Entrepreneurship and Higher Education.

He holds Diploma in Electrical / Electronics Engineering from Auchi Polytechnic. He received his Dipl.- Ing /B. Sc in Systems Engineering with focus in IT / Automation from University of Applied Sciences Northwest Switzerland. He received his Master of Science in Biomedical Engineering focusing on Medical Imaging & Therapeutic Technologies from University of Bern & Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (ETHZ), Switzerland, in addition to MPhil and PhD in Information Systems and Technology from Monarch University-Monarch Business School in Switzerland. He holds Certificates of Advanced Studies from ETHZ with emphasis in IT Security Management, Environment, Technology and Society. He is certified in Software Testing ISEB / ISTQB; ITIL, Prince2, MoR, PMI-RMP and KABA Exo 9300 among others. Dr Ama-Amadasun holds Global MBA in Cybersecurity and General Management and a certificate in IT Cybersecurity Professionals from Swiss School of Business and Management in Geneva, Switzerland. He has attended several Workshops, Seminars and Conferences relating to certificates and management courses from HBX Harvard Business School, Harvard Business School, USA, Netherlands, France, Germany, Austria, Spain, South Africa, and Italy among others.

Dr. Ama-Amadasun was first employed as a Technical Staff of the former Bendel State Utilities Board under Ministry of works at Ikpoba Dam, Benin City, from 1987-1989. He began his entrepreneurial journey in 1995 as MD when he established Ama Car Care in Switzerland. He established Amadale Global Systems Nigeria limited in Nigeria in 2002, an outsourcing company in the areas of fingerprint biometric and access control security system solutions catering for the protection of human and material resources to achieve stability, profitability, while providing a safe and secure working environment. He is the founder of AMA-Amadale Global Systems, Switzerland where he acts as an IT-Trainer and Principal Consultant in the areas of IT, Vocational Education and Training, Innovation & Technology solutions. He is also the founder of NigeriaResearch dot com, a web-based platform for Nigerian researchers and other researchers across the globe. He was the co-founder of Outsourcingprofis, Switzerland from 2006 to 2009. He gained industry and professional experiences from several companies across Switzerland and Germany, such as Unisys, PWC, Swiss Post, Swiss International Airlines, Electrolux, Credit Suisse, Bern University of Applied Sciences, University of Bern (BNF), Zurich Insurance, AXA Winterthur, DELL, and many others.

He was an Adjunct Lecturer at the Innovation Computer Academy, Switzerland as well as Adjunct dissertation advisor for Masters and PhD students in both remote and onsite locations for Monarch University (Switzerland), University of Liverpool (UK), Walden University (USA). He has published several peer reviewed papers in numerous international journals and tutored / supervised / co-supervised several undergraduates, graduates, and postgraduate students. He was appointed as a Visiting Lecturer to Edo State Polytechnic, Usen, and delivered a talk on Polytechnic's 3rd Eminent Scholar Lecture Series entitled 'Leveraging ICT Towards Practice In The Digital Age: Software Tools As Catalyst For Innovation'. He assisted and had the mandate of the Institution to seek assistance and collaboration with other Institutions and Organizations in the deployment of ICT facilities (software, hardware, and other devices / accessories). In the past, he contributed to the Vocational Education and Training program for the Federal Science and Technical College Yaba, Lagos State, 2014/15, in collaboration with Diaspora Vocational and Technical Initiative (DVTI) and Swiss Development Agency (SDA).

Dr. Marvin Ama-Amadasun was the Coordinator for Edos In Diaspora worldwide for Switzerland. He served as a Regional Representative for European Alumni Association for Monarch University Switzerland, and since 2019, the Coordinator for Switzerland for the Institute of Information Management, IIM- Global. He is currently the Technical Consultant for the delivery of IT services to HCL Technologies Limited and Omya International Switzerland, both in Switzerland.

He is a fellow member of the Institute of Information Management (IIM-Africa) and Chief Data Officer Ambassador, CDOA under MIT CDO program, Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE), in addition to other professional bodies such as, Swiss Engineering, Association of Computer Machinery (ACM), British Computer Society (BCS), PMI, ISACA, SEV, IEEE EMBS and Electro Suisse among others.